Job overview

We are looking for a highly motivated and skilled teaching assistant to support within our Specialist Resource Provision (SRP) for autistic children. This is a varied role and every day is different!

Children within the SRP are valued members of both the SRP and their mainstream class. Each child has a personalised timetable within the SRP, which indicates when children will access mainstream lessons. We are looking for someone who is enthusiastic, has excellent communication skills, is a good team player, and has a passion for helping children achieve their full potential, and who values creativity, innovation and commitment.

The role is a permanent contract, term time - 38 weeks of the year; 32.5 hours a week.

Within this role, you will work with the SRP Lead Specialist Teacher to:

- Support children to complete their learning, both within the specialist resource provision and in their mainstream classes.
- Deliver interventions and programmes such as speech and language therapy or occupational therapy
- Work on both a 1:1 and small group basis
- Liaise with external therapists and other professionals
- Track children's progress towards their targets
- Provide individualised feedback to parents

What we offer

- A friendly and inclusive team who are supportive of one another and focused on well-being.
- A full-time five days a week position from 8:30am to 3:30pm.
- Fantastic pupils who want to learn.
- Opportunities and support for career development that includes coaching.

We warmly invite visits to our school to see how we work and to find out more about the role.

Our last Ofsted inspection was in May 2019 where we were judged to be a 'Good' school with 'Outstanding' in pupil Behaviour and Welfare.

Our SIAMs inspection (November 2023) reported; "There is a tangible culture of encouragement and dignity for all, ensuring life changing impact across the community. The strong pastoral support provided across the school community has created a culture where all are included without judgement."
