About Oasis Restore

Oasis Restore is the country's first secure school; a proof-of-concept policy initiative funded by the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) and the Youth Custody Service. Oasis Restore's mission is to transform the life chances of children aged 12-19 years in the criminal justice system through delivering psychologically informed, integrated practice that centres on trusted, safe relationships between staff and children. Oasis Restore is a learning community that embeds hope, stability and opportunity for children beyond the secure school.

Job Purpose

To support with the delivery of outstanding teaching to students that is bespoke to their individual needs and promotes a love of discovery and learning. To carry out the professional duties of a qualified Higher Level Teaching Assistant, HLTA, in accordance with the nationally recognised HLTA standards as well as the duties and expectations outlined in this JD and Oasis Restore draft policies, including our Code of Conduct.

To contribute, under the direction of the Head of Departments and Head of Inclusion, to the development and implementation of a package of learning and therapeutic opportunities and support that is psychologically informed and successfully prepares children for their individual pathways beyond Oasis Restore.

To support the emotional, social and educational growth of severely traumatised children and young people aged 12-19. We look to provide children with ways of developing themselves and through positive experiences and relationships, focusing on their strengths, understanding their regressive tendencies and providing nurturing opportunities for their development that link with their families, home communities and future aspirations. This means being a part of the therapeutic system around the child, involved in the daily life of the children in their flats as well as in the classroom, playing a key part in their 'Core Teams' (with colleagues from other professional disciplines) and flat communities, as well as working with their families and significant others in their lives.

We recognise this role is unique and does not exist as such within the youth justice sectors. From our experience of building new organisations from scratch – and of developing schools – we have learnt that we need to be agile and respond to learning and development of our structures. We welcome and expect on-going dialogue with the successful candidate to refine and develop the detail of these responsibilities to ensure that they reflect the needs and demands of the post. Therefore, the following is not exhaustive.

- Be in tune with the physical, social, emotional and intellectual development of students, and work closely with the multidisciplinary team to adapt resources to support their education at different stages of development
- Operate from a place of curiosity and informed understanding of each child's needs, including those with special educational needs; complex emotional needs, those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them

- Engage in ongoing training opportunities and development, including attending supervision and reflective practice
- Be accountable for your subject knowledge, actively prioritising upskilling or personal learning in collaboration with your line manager
- Stay up to date with developments in the subject and curriculum areas that you support with as well as with safeguarding
- Champion effective use of formulation, which includes the understanding children's stories and histories to determine their exposure to trauma, childhood adversity and risk, and to identify protective factors that will inform their learning journeys
- Use playfulness, acceptance, empathy and curiosity in your interactions with children, in recognition of their developmental and psychological needs at this difficult juncture in their lives.
- Promote a culture of curiosity; the acceptance that we will get things wrong and the confidence to explore ways of improving through accountability and engaging with inter-disciplinary practice.
- Nurture and care for the students through fostering good interpersonal relationships, and engaging in wider their Oasis Restore life
- Approach children with humanity and positive regard, seeking to understand their challenges and their offences in the context of their life experiences, and supporting them in future reparation.
- Be prepared to encounter difficult information and situations, approaching these with acceptance, given the nature of our work, and seeking support through supervision, management and reflective practice.
- Model emotional resilience and the will for positive resolution and reparation for all children, by engaging with restorative processes and conversations where you have been involved in misunderstanding, distress or conflict.
- Be committed to ensuring the wellbeing of students, staff and the wider school community

- Have high expectations of behaviour and establish a classroom culture, in line with Oasis Restore policy, using reward, sanction, praise and other strategies consistently and fairly to involve and motivate children.

- You would support the Registered Manager in the implementation of the statutory responsibilities in meeting the safeguarding requirements outlines in the Statement of Purpose

Other

- The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Conditions of Employment
- The duties of this post may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or level of responsibility entailed
