

St Matthew's High Brooms Church of England Primary School.

Head Teacher - Job Description

Salary scale: £59,857 – £69,330

Responsible to: The Governing Body and the Local Authority

Purpose of the Job

To be the strategic lead professional at St Matthews High Brooms CE Primary School. The head teacher will provide vision, ambition, leadership and direction at St Matthew's High Brooms CE Primary School, ensuring it is managed and organised by working strategically with all partners and stakeholders to develop outstanding provision, which will transform the educational and future life opportunities of all pupils.

Main duties and responsibilities

1. To be the lead professional and positive role model within our community.
2. To work to an agreed vision, underpinned by clear values which will be evident throughout the school.
3. To have direct impact in raising achievements to the highest level for all children through uncompromising high ambition.
4. To lead by example in determining the professional conduct and practice of teachers to the highest standard.
5. To enable a climate in the school which enables all pupils to display exemplary behaviour.
6. To be a positive role model in helping others recognise difference and respect cultural diversity within contemporary Britain.
7. To have ambition and seize opportunities for the school to share good practice and expertise, learning from others beyond its boundaries.

Qualities and Knowledge

1. Hold and articulate clear values and moral purpose, focused on providing a world-class education for the pupils who will be served by Primary School.
2. Demonstrate optimistic personal behaviour, positive relationships and attitudes towards pupils, and towards parents, governors and the local community.
3. Lead by example - with integrity, creativity, resilience, and clarity - drawing on your own scholarship, expertise and skills, and that of those around you.

St Matthew's High Brooms Headteacher Job Description

4. Sustain wide, current knowledge and understanding of education and school systems locally, nationally and globally, and pursue continuous professional development.
5. Work with political and financial astuteness, within a clear set of principles centred on the school's vision, ably translating KCC and national policy into the schools context.
6. Communicate compellingly the school's vision and drive the strategic leadership, empowering all pupils and staff to excel.
7. Promoting a positive Christian ethos and identity in which Christian worship is of a high standard, and where staff and children feel valued, and are encouraged to take responsibility.

Pupils and Staff

1. Demand ambitious standards for all pupils, overcoming disadvantage and advancing equality, instilling a strong sense of accountability in staff for the impact of their work on pupils' outcomes.
2. Secure excellent teaching through an analytical understanding of how pupils learn and of the core features of successful classroom practice and curriculum design, leading to rich curriculum opportunities and pupils' well-being.
3. Establish an educational culture of 'open classrooms' as a basis for sharing best practice within and schools, drawing on and conducting relevant research and robust data analysis.
4. Create an ethos within which all staff are motivated and supported to develop their own skills and subject knowledge, and to support each other.
5. Identify emerging talents, coaching current and aspiring leaders in a climate where excellence is the standard, leading to clear succession planning.
6. Hold all staff to account for their professional conduct and practice.

Systems and Process

1. Ensure that the school's systems, organisation and processes are well considered, efficient and fit for purpose, upholding the principles of transparency, integrity and probity.
2. Provide a safe, calm and well-ordered environment for all pupils and staff, focused on safeguarding pupils and developing their exemplary behaviour in school and in the wider society.
3. Establish rigorous, fair and transparent systems and measures for managing the performance of all staff, addressing any under-performance, supporting staff to improve and valuing excellent practice.
4. Welcome strong governance and actively support the governing body to understand its role and deliver its functions effectively – in particular its functions to set school strategy and hold the head teacher to account for pupil, staff and financial performance.

5. Exercise strategic, curriculum-led financial planning to ensure the equitable deployment of budgets, resources and accommodation, in the best interests of pupils' achievements and the school's sustainability.

6. Distribute leadership throughout the organisation, forging teams of colleagues who have distinct roles and responsibilities and hold each other to account for their decision making.

The Self-Improving School System

1. Create outward-facing school, which works with other schools and organisations - in a climate of mutual challenge - to champion best practice and secure excellent achievements for all pupils.

2. Develop effective relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues in other public services, to improve academic and social outcomes for all pupils.

3. Challenge educational orthodoxies in the best interests of achieving excellence, harnessing the findings of well evidenced research to frame self-regulating and self-improving schools.

4. Shape the current and future quality of the teaching profession through high quality training and sustained professional development for all staff.

5. Model entrepreneurial and innovative approaches to service improvement, leadership and governance, confident of the vital contribution of internal and external accountability.

6. Inspire and influence others - within and beyond schools - to believe in the fundamental importance of education in young people's lives and to promote the value of education.

Christian Ethos of the School

1. Actively promoting the spiritual, moral and social development of the pupils within the Anglican foundation of the school.

2. Supervising, encouraging and personally leading Christian collective worship.

3. Continuing to develop links with St Matthews's church.

4. Nurturing the Christian character and culture of the school.
