

Headteacher job description

Salary: £66,368 - £90,255

Role Purpose

To provide overall strategic leadership and, with others, lead, develop and support the strategic direction, vision, values and priorities of the school. To ensure all school standards, processes, teaching and culture are aligned with that of an exemplar school, achieving and maintaining “excellence” as the performance rating and establishing these standards as the benchmark experience for all staff, children and families who are part of the school community.

Develop, implement and evaluate the school's policies, practices and procedures whilst creating and delivering an ambitious strategic vision that drives continuous improvement, ensures financial sustainability through expert financial data management and strategic recommendations, and builds an inspiring environment where all leaders, teachers and staff are inspired to thrive and belong. To promote the school and nursery as a hub for the Kings Hill community through the excellence of culture and school experience.

The Headteacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of principled and professional conduct, meet the teachers' standards and be accountable for providing the conditions in which teachers can fulfil them.

UK National Headteacher Standards

The Headteacher upholds public trust in school leadership and maintains high standards of ethics and behaviour, both within and outside school. The Headteacher is expected to:

- Build relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observe proper boundaries appropriate to their professional position
- Show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others, recognising differences and respecting cultural diversity within contemporary Britain
- Uphold fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

- Ensure that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit their position, pupils' vulnerability or might lead pupils to break the law

As a leader of the school community and profession, the Headteacher is to:

- Serve in the best interests of the school's pupils
- Conduct themselves in a manner compatible with their influential position in society by behaving ethically, fulfilling their professional responsibilities and modelling the behaviour of a good citizen
- Uphold their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- Know, understand, and act within the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities
- Take responsibility for their own continued professional development, engaging critically with educational research

- Ensure staff are deployed and managed well with due attention paid to workload

- Oversee systems, processes and policies that enable the school to operate effectively and efficiently
- Ensure rigorous approaches to identifying, managing and mitigating risk

8. Continuous school improvement

- Make use of effective and proportional processes of evaluation to identify and analyse complex or persistent problems and barriers which limit school effectiveness, and identify priority areas for improvement
- Develop appropriate evidence-informed strategies for improvement as part of well-targeted plans which are realistic, timely, appropriately sequenced and suited to the school's context
- Ensure careful and effective implementation of improvement strategies, which lead to sustained school improvement over time

9. Working in partnership

- Forge constructive relationships beyond the school, working in partnership with parents, carers and the local community
- Commit their school to work successfully with other schools and organisations in a climate of mutual challenge and support
- Establish and maintain working relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues across other public services to improve educational outcomes for all pupils

10. Governance and accountability

- Understand and welcome the role of effective governance, upholding their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- Establish and sustain professional working relationship with those responsible for governance
- Ensure that staff know and understand their professional responsibilities and are held to account
- Ensure the school effectively and efficiently operates within the required regulatory frameworks and meets all statutory duties
- Actively promotes Kings Hill Primary as an outward-facing school, engaging with other schools and organisations to champion best practice and secure excellent achievements for all pupils
- Develop effective relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues in other public services to improve academic and social outcomes for all pupils
- Challenge educational orthodoxies in the best interests of achieving excellence, harnessing the findings of well evidenced research to frame self-regulating and self-improving schools
- Shape the current and future quality of the teaching profession through high quality training and sustained professional development for all staff

A Headteacher will undertake any other duties which from time to time will be required and be relevant and commensurate with the post as deemed necessary by the governing body and local authority.
