Teaching at Dane Court: the DC6

The Post

Our Music Department

The music department at Dane Court is a thriving hub. With a suite of Macs in both classrooms, students are able to build a musical foundation rich in technology.

All students study music at KS3. With music technology integrated into the curriculum from Year 7, all students learn to compose using LogicPro. Performance is central to the curriculum and students explore this through a variety of topics. At GCSE students follow the Edexcel syllabus which comprises 60% coursework of composition and performance and 40% listening exam. In years 12 and 13 students study music through the IB syllabus which is centred around Exploring Music in Context, Experimenting with Music, Presenting Music and The Contemporary Music Maker.

There are plenty of opportunities for students to explore music outside of the classroom. We have a team of 10 visiting instrumental teachers and a full programme of extra-curricular activities including orchestra, jazz band, choir and music theory. There are opportunities to start additional ensembles based on the candidate's field of expertise.

Performance opportunities are central to the music department at Dane Court and we deliver regular concerts both in school and as part of the Coastal Academies Trust. We are delighted to be returning to performing to the community this summer with a performance on Broadstairs Bandstand. We have nurtured links with local organisations and are proud to offer Jazz Workshops to our students through Deal Music and Arts and the National Youth Jazz Orchestra Academy.
