Welcome from the Headteacher

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teaching Assistant.

We are seeking a dynamic and hard-working individual to join our wonderful Special Educational Needs department. This role will involve one-to-one support for students with Education, Health & Care Plans (EHCPs) or identified as requiring SEN support.

The successful candidate will:

- share our vision for the school as a 'place of belonging' and high expectations, where students work hard, achieve highly and treat each other with kindness;
- understand the importance of providing very high quality support for students with SEN;
- set high expectations for behaviour; insist on respect and kindness;
- provide high quality support to the SENCO and the team as a whole.

The support you provide the SENCO will be invaluable in implementing a vision for the department; you will, in turn, be given support in your own career and professional development.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully

Martin Jones
Headteacher

School Vision and Values and Aims

Vision

Developing knowledgeable and caring young people who help to create a better and more peaceful world

Values

Caring: We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service, and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others and in the world around us.

Open-minded: We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view, and we are willing to grow from the experience.

Principled: We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

Aims 2021-2024

Curriculum & Teaching: outstanding learning, achievement & destinations

- Provide an excellent academic education that enables all students to secure the highest grades in order to access world-class universities, the most competitive undergraduate courses and high quality employment-based opportunities
- Ensure students experience high quality lessons, characterised by: high challenge for all, high quality talk, frequent guided and independent practice, meaningful feedback, excellent support for learning and regular opportunities for knowledge retrieval (The DC6).
- Provide an excellent real-world education, including SRE & PSHE, to fully prepare students for the challenges and opportunities of modern living
- Provide high quality and inclusive support for students of all abilities and backgrounds and work closely with external partners to access specialist support for our students as required
- Provide varied, enriching and high quality extracurricular opportunities

Wellbeing, welfare, behaviour & attitudes: outstanding relationships

- Ensure that students are safe and able to make positive and informed choices to enhance their own wellbeing as well as the wellbeing of others
- Foster a caring, open-minded and principled school community where we all act with integrity and honesty
- Develop respectful and confident global citizens and young leaders

Leadership: making a difference

- Ensure that students from low income backgrounds have fair access to the school, receive excellent support, achieve highly and secure exciting destinations.
- Make a significant contribution to the education of young people across Thanet through partnerships with other schools, particularly those within the Coastal Academies Trust
- Ensure that staff are well-supported and workload is well-managed. Provide coherent and ambitious career and professional development pathways for all colleagues. Play a leading role in the development of EKLA and make a significant contribution to the planning and delivery of the alliance's programmes, including ITT and NPQs.

Our Curriculum

Our curriculum is broad, challenging and internationally-minded

Intent

Our curriculum aims to give our students the knowledge and skills to succeed in the world as it is, and the wisdom, empathy and courage to fashion the world as it should be.

Teaching at Dane Court: the DC6

The Post

30 Hours per week.

One- year temporary contract.

Salary: £18328 to £18454 pro rata to £12455 to £12540 (pay rise pending for September)

Job Description

POST TITLE: Teaching Assistant (one-to-one support)

RESPONSIBLE TO: SENCO

Teachers and members of the support team make the education of their students their first concern. Teachers and members of the support team act with honesty and integrity; keep their knowledge and skills up-to-date and are self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of the students.

Main purpose of the job:

To provide high quality one-to-one support for students with SEN and to enable them to make best use of the educational opportunities available to them, both in the classroom supporting lesson delivery and outside of the classroom when delivering intervention.

Responsibilities include:

Working with particular students, as directed by the Senco to support subjects and learning across the whole curriculum.

Establishing a supportive, caring and secure relationship with the child, promoting respect, self-esteem and encouraging our whole school values of being caring, open-minded and principled both in the classroom and around the school in general.

Developing knowledge and understanding of the specific academic, physical, emotional, behavioural and if required, medical needs of the students and respond to them effectively.

Assisting the SENCO with the planning, development and delivery of suitable strategies and programmes of work for the pupil.

Supporting and engaging the designated students, clarifying instructions, encouraging independent learning and behaviour, and enabling learning targets and outcomes to be achieved.

Contributing to monitoring and recording student progress, maintaining records and providing relevant feedback to teachers and the Senco.

Liaison with outside agencies and parents of the identified students, where appropriate, including attendance to Annual Reviews where a student has an EHCP.

Providing supervision and activities for students during some unstructured times (break/lunchtime).

Teachers and members of the support team must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.

Teachers and members of the support team must have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities.

The job description, in consultation with the post holder, may be changed by the Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job.

Dane Court is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. Offers of appointment are subject to satisfactory references and DBS clearance.

Safeguarding and Safer Recruitment

Dane Court is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people in education and expects all staff to share this commitment. Safer recruitment is the first stage of the safeguarding process.

To make sure we recruit suitable people, we will ensure that those involved in the recruitment and employment of staff to work with children have received appropriate safer recruitment training.

We have put the following steps in place during our recruitment and selection process to ensure we are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

All posts at Dane Court Grammar School are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020.

Shortlisting:

Our shortlisting process will involve at least 2 people and will:

- Consider any inconsistencies and look for gaps in employment and reasons given for them
- Explore all potential concerns

Once we have shortlisted candidates, we will ask shortlisted candidates to:

- Complete a self-declaration of their criminal record or any information that would make them unsuitable to work with children, so that they have the opportunity to share relevant information and discuss it at interview stage. The information we will ask for includes:
 - If they have a criminal history
 - Whether they are included on the barred list
 - Whether they are prohibited from teaching
 - Information about any criminal offences committed in any country in line with the law as applicable in England and Wales
 - Any relevant overseas information
- Sign a declaration confirming the information they have provided is true

References and checking employment history

We will obtain references before interview. Any concerns raised will be explored further with referees and taken up with the candidate at interview.

When seeking references we will:

- Not accept open references
- Liaise directly with referees and verify any information contained within references with the referees
- Ensure any references are from the candidate's current employer and completed by a senior person. Where the referee is school based, we will ask for the reference to be confirmed by the headteacher/principal as accurate in respect to disciplinary investigations
- Obtain verification of the candidate's most recent relevant period of employment if they are not currently employed
- Secure a reference from the relevant employer from the last time the candidate worked with children if they are not currently working with children
- Compare the information on the application form with that in the reference and take up any inconsistencies with the candidate
- Resolve any concerns before any appointment is confirmed

Interview and selection

When interviewing candidates, we will:

- Probe any gaps in employment, or where the candidate has changed employment or location frequently, and ask candidates to explain this
- Explore any potential areas of concern to determine the candidate's suitability to work with children
- Record all information considered and decisions made

Pre-appointment vetting checks

We will record all information on the checks carried out in the school's single central record (SCR). Copies of these checks, where appropriate, will be held in individuals' personnel files. We follow requirements and best practice in retaining copies of these checks, as set out below.

New staff

All offers of appointment will be conditional until satisfactory completion of the necessary pre-employment checks. When appointing new staff, we will:

- Verify their identity
- Obtain (via the applicant) an enhanced DBS certificate, including barred list information for those who will be engaging in regulated activity (see definition below). We will obtain the certificate before, or as soon as practicable after, appointment, including when using the DBS update service. We will not keep a copy of the certificate for longer than 6 months, but when the copy is destroyed we may still keep a record of the fact that vetting took place, the result of the check and recruitment decision taken
- Obtain a separate barred list check if they will start work in regulated activity before the DBS certificate is available
- Verify their mental and physical fitness to carry out their work responsibilities
- Verify their right to work in the UK. We will keep a copy of this verification for the duration of the member of staff's employment and for 2 years afterwards
- Verify their professional qualifications, as appropriate
- Ensure they are not subject to a prohibition order if they are employed to be a teacher other classroom staff
- Carry out further additional checks, as appropriate, on candidates who have lived or worked outside of the UK. Where available, these will include:
 - For all staff, including teaching positions: criminal records checks for overseas applicants
 - For teaching positions: obtaining a letter of professional standing from the professional regulating authority in the country where the applicant has worked
- Check that candidates taking up a management position* are not subject to a prohibition from management (section 128) direction made by the secretary of state

* Management positions are most likely to include, but are not limited to, headteachers, principals and deputy/assistant headteachers.

Regulated activity means a person who will be:

- Responsible, on a regular basis in a school or college, for teaching, training, instructing, caring for or supervising children; or
- Carrying out paid, or unsupervised unpaid, work regularly in a school or college where that work provides an opportunity for contact with children; or
- Engaging in intimate or personal care or overnight activity, even if this happens only once and regardless of whether they are supervised or not
