Teaching Standards 2012

Teachers make the education of their pupils their first concern, and are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct. Teachers act with honesty and integrity; have strong subject knowledge, keep their knowledge and skills as teachers up-to-date and are self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of their pupils.

A teacher must:

1. Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils
2. Promote good progress and outcomes by pupils
3. Demonstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge
4. Plan and teach well-structured lessons
5. Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils
6. Make accurate and productive use of assessment
7. Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

8. Fulfil wider professional responsibilities

- make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school
- develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support
- deploy support staff effectively
- take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues
- communicate effectively with parents with regard to pupils' achievements and well-being.
- undertake break duties.
- To attend regular staff meetings in order to ensure best practice.

Commitment to the School:

- The Class Teacher will adhere to and actively promote the School's Teaching and Learning Policy.
- The Class Teacher understands that their behaviour in, and out of school can impact on the reputation of the school and the teaching profession as a whole.

Personal & Professional Conduct:

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

- Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school.
- Teachers must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.
- Teachers must have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities.
- In relation to the School Improvement Plan, to carry out all duties and action allocated specifically to you to the best of your ability.

General:

- Follow the School's child protection procedures in cases where there is concern over the safety or emotional wellbeing of a student.
- Maintain strict confidentiality with regard to both the staff and students within and outside school.
- Work effectively as a team member.
- Provide a positive role-model in terms of timekeeping, dress code and work ethos.
- Support the management of health and safety in accordance with the health and safety policy.
- Employees are expected to be courteous to colleagues, parents and children and to provide a welcoming environment to visitors and telephone callers.
- The school will endeavour to make any necessary reasonable adjustments to the job and the working environment to enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or for continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition.

Staff Development:

- To undertake essential training.
- To set targets before any development activity and review and evaluate the activity after completion, cascading information to the appropriate staff members when relevant.
- To participate fully in training and other staff development activities and keep personal records of such activities.

Conditions

- Class Teachers will undertake any other duties which from time to time maybe required and be relevant and commensurate with the post as deemed necessary by the Executive Headteacher or Headteacher.
- The job description will be reviewed at the end of the academic year or earlier if necessary. In addition, it may be amended at any time after consultation with you.
