Applications from NQT's are welcome.

Application Deadline: Friday 21st May 2021

Interviews: WC 24th May 2021

Due to an increase in student numbers we are excited to advertise the position of Teacher of Geography within our Humanities Department for 1st of September 2021

We are justifiably proud of our outstanding Humanities department which consistently delivers an engaging and inspirational curriculum whilst achieving the highest levels of student progress at GCSE and A Level.

Our results are well above average and reflect the refined levels of pedagogy in the department.

We highly recommend contacting us to arrange an informal visit to the school (following all appropriate Covid-19 safety protocols) to fully understand what makes Wrotham School such a desirable place to work.

As well as being a suitably qualified teacher with excellent subject knowledge and pedagogy; the ideal candidate will be emotionally intelligent, highly motivated and will be willing to take measured risks to deliver an exciting and engaging curriculum that develops students' thinking skills, progress and aspirations.

As a Geography teacher at the school you will have the opportunity to develop and deliver a creative and dynamic Humanities curriculum that will enrich your own practice through high expectations of student engagement with challenging content and subject skills. The successful candidate will be part of a highly supportive and collaborative team of teachers with a long standing culture of sharing best practice.

Wrotham School is fully committed to equal opportunity employment and actively encourages applications from all potential candidates regardless of race, gender, sexuality and disability.

We are a highly successful school that boasts outstanding behaviour and supportive parents. A recent Parent view survey demonstrated a 100% approval rating in almost all categories of parent satisfaction. Visitors to our school always comment on the calm and purposeful atmosphere they observe in our classrooms and communal areas. Our outstanding results are testament to the strength of our staff team and the hard work of our students.

Wrotham School is part of the Character Education Trust, which is a small Trust that is focused on developing student's strength of character. More information about the trust can be found here: <https://www.charactereducationtrust.org/>
