Head of History (TLR2b)

Required: 2nd September 2024

Head of History

Rye College is seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, energetic and adaptable Head of History, who can demonstrate excellent subject knowledge and team working, to join our highly-motivated team. We are driven by a pursuit of high academic standards regardless of background and a desire for all students to experience an exceptional education. We are open to applications from experienced teachers or ambitious newcomers.

Our ideal candidate will:

- Be an excellent teacher to students of all abilities in key stages 3 and 4;
- Have a love of the subject and desire and ability to convey this to students;
- Be enthusiastic, energetic and open to innovation;
- Possess effective communication skills and be emotionally intelligent;
- Possess effective ICT skills and be open to new uses of technology in the workplace;
- Be committed to extra-curricular activities including lunch time activities;
- Be committed to continuing professional learning;
- Have integrity, optimism and a good sense of humour;
- Hold a good honours degree along with qualified teacher status.

In return, we offer:

- A happy community committed to the professional development of all colleagues;
- A distinctive local context ensuring we place inclusivity at the heart of all we do;
- A skilled and experienced team of teachers and other professionals;
- A motivated leadership team leading rapid improvement to the students' life chances;
- A college in which the students are enthusiastic, engaging and thoughtful.

Rye College is committed to safeguarding the young people in our care and we expect all our staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check.

October, 2023

Dear applicant,

On behalf of our students, colleagues and trustees, I would like to thank you for your interest in a position at Rye College. I hope you find the application pack both helpful and informative.

There is a long tradition of education in Rye that goes back to the foundation of the Grammar School in 1636. At Rye College, we are proud to be a significant chapter in the ongoing story of nearly four hundred years of learning in this ancient town.

There is significant transformational change improving the standard of education and facilities at Rye College – ideal for ambitious and talented teachers to truly make a difference, and build upon our most recent OFSTED good grading. Having seen an impressive rise in progress and attainment outcomes over the last few years, we continue to focus on delivering academic excellence with a commitment to high-quality pedagogy and teacher training. We offer excellent opportunities for those who can deliver in the classroom and wish to progress their career.

We work to instil a sense of responsibility in all our students – a sense of ownership of their learning, of their college, of their actions and of the consequences. In today's complex world, children need both the knowledge and skills to compete in a global market place but also need a sense of their humanity – the ability to respect, to empathise and to be caring and compassionate individuals.

Our curriculum offer is simple: broad and balanced with an academic core. It combines a foundation in the national curriculum subjects, a focus on academic achievement in English, maths, science and the humanities with a broader offer of suitable academic, vocational and technical qualifications. In recent years, our students have found much success in the creative arts – and this is a commitment we see in our curriculum offer for the next academic year.

We are looking to recruit experienced and newly qualified teachers who want to raise standards through the creation of vibrant and innovative classrooms. Central to this is an ability to work in partnership with our families and other professionals to continue our mission to build an amazing college that delivers excellence for every one of our students.

In your application, please outline why you would like to join Rye College, how you meet the person specification and what might make you irresistible. We value honesty.

I look forward receiving your completed application.

With thanks,

Dom Downes
Headteacher

The College

Our mission at Rye College is to 'create bright futures for all'. With this in mind, we work hard to ensure that every child is happy and well supported on their educational journey with us. We want every child to grow and flourish in our care.

Our college is set in the attractive heart of 1066 country and is a place where students feel safe and have space to learn. We pride ourselves on being a close knit community where students are known as individuals and where their talents are nurtured.

We are part of a family of schools that serve the young people of Rye from two to sixteen years of age, truly making us a 'local community college'. We are driven by a pursuit of high academic standards regardless of start points and a desire for all students to experience an exceptional education.

Our aim is to challenge every learner to exceed their own expectations of themselves; create a can-do culture and the resilience to excel; include all members of our community through shared endeavour; and nurture diverse skills, talents and abilities whilst celebrating excellence.

Since November 2018, Rye College has been part of Aquinas - an educational trust of eleven schools in the south-east; we believe our students will benefit enormously from our shared ambition to excel. We are proud to be working together with Aquinas to build on our reputation for supporting students in realising their potential and going on to lead fruitful and productive lives.

As an organisation we focus on the professional expertise of our teachers and associates, providing continuing professional learning for colleagues in all roles. We believe our students benefit from creative approaches to teaching and a shared ambition to succeed. We are proud of the positive reputation our schools have for supporting youngsters in realising their potential and going on to lead fruitful and productive lives.

- Take account of students' prior levels of attainment and use them to set future targets;
- Set and monitor homework assignments regularly in accordance with college policy;
- Monitor and assess student achievement in accordance with college policy;
- Ensure students are entered for appropriate examinations consistent with their achievements to date and their potential;
- Prepare constructive and developmental reports for parents, attending relevant parents evenings and meet parents at other times necessary to maximise achievement;
- Maintain data files (e.g. grab files and SIMS/Arbor) to a high standard making them available for regular review by Faculty and Curriculum Leaders;
- Differentiate work to meet individual needs and promote equal opportunities;
- Set appropriate and challenging work for all students;
- Identify and work appropriately with students with special educational needs and disabilities, the disadvantaged and high attainers;
- Communicate effectively with form tutors, parents and leaders to maximise opportunities for effective learning to take place;
- Set work when required for absent students via ClassCharts;
- Establish a purposeful working atmosphere during all learning activities.

Students

- Ensure the student safety and welfare is accorded top priority in the planning and delivery of each lesson;
- Ensure that any sanctions imposed are in accordance with college policy;
- Ensure that each lesson begins and ends punctually and that students are properly supervised at all times;
- Maintain good discipline by following the college's behaviour management policies and procedures;
- Ensure that students' work is marked, corrected and returned promptly. Provide constructive comments and feedback as appropriate, promoting high standards of content and presentation in accordance with appropriate faculty criteria;
- Monitor any concerns with student achievement and take the appropriate action.

Colleagues

- Work in line with trust, college and faculty policies;
- Support NQT work in the faculty or year team as appropriate;

- Welcome, support and encourage new members of the team;
- Share new ideas and suggestions, reflect on good practice and be involved in lesson and task observation to improve professional practice;
- Produce evaluation reports of all training attended;
- Participate in faculty reviews and work with external consultants to develop practice.

Resources

- Create and maintain a classroom that is a pleasant, tidy and well organised working environment;
- Promote the use of display of work as a means of encouraging students, celebrating success and raising levels of achievement;
- Ensure that books, equipment and other resources are properly cared for and that their use is effectively controlled and efficiently organised;
- Take care of equipment and furniture with any damage or defects to fabric or equipment being reported to the Site Manager and Faculty Leader as appropriate.

Other Duties

- Attend meetings, scheduled training activities and workshops as published;
- Work in support of the trust, college, faculty and related strategic improvement plans;
- Support college activities that benefit the community (e.g. concerts, open evenings, events etc.);
- Take time to read notices, keep to deadlines and carry out duties to the best of your ability.

Role of the Tutor

- Monitor absences, lateness and uniform and maintain accurate details of attendance in accordance with college policy;
- Monitor student planners on a regular basis;
- Ensure that tutorial programmes are planned, recorded and are in accordance with the programme of study provided by the Director of Life Education;
- Complete individual reports for parents and maintain regular contact;
- Promote students' achievements using praise and rewards effectively in line with college policy;
- Maintain effective communication with students and their parents, and with associates, other teachers and leaders as necessary;
- Assist leaders and directors in the organisation of activities and events;
- Ensure that students new to the college are properly inducted.

Appraisal and Professional Development

Every colleague is part of the college's appraisal programme. New employees are allocated an appraiser who sets agreed objectives for the year. The appraiser monitors and reviews performance including classroom teaching. The college supports the continuing professional learning of all colleagues, to ensure that their expertise is being kept up to date. Newly Qualified Teachers are supported with a tailored programme.

Responsibilities are likely to change over time and you will be expected to perform duties of a similar nature such as the headteacher may reasonably require.

In addition, key accountabilities for a Subject Head include:

Teaching, Learning and Assessment:

- Ensuring that statutory requirements of the national curriculum are met;
- Ensuring that all qualification and examination criteria are met;
- Ensuring that programmes of study are planned, implemented, reviewed and revised – matching provision to student need;
- Ensuring whole-college approaches are explicitly addressed within the curriculum area;
- Promoting quality-first teaching, learning and assessment.

Student Achievement:

- Allocating teaching groups, monitoring progress and addressing achievement issues;
- Using appropriate tools to analyse college data and compare with benchmark data;
- Planning appropriate intervention strategies to raise achievement including intra-curricular and extracurricular provision;
- Promoting high standards or attainment and progress in public examinations.

Quality Assurance:

- Appraising colleague's performance and supporting other appraisers in their duties;
- Advising as to priorities for Continuous Professional Development ensuring colleagues are kept abreast of recent developments in relevant subject areas;
- Promoting and providing training for colleagues e.g. application of agreed college policies;
- Working closely with Quality/Progress Leaders to develop quality assurance methods allowing for the self-evaluation of curriculum area initiatives and whole-college approaches;

Leadership and Planning:

- Working to an Action Plan which takes account of the Improvement Plan and priorities;
- Dealing effectively with routine faculty organisation and administrative matters;
- Ensuring that faculty records and handbook are properly kept and updated when necessary;
- Working productively and co-operatively with students, families, colleagues and leaders.
- Providing rigorous, systematic and visionary leadership to build an effective faculty team.

Finance and Resources:

- Delivering value for money (within any cost centre allocation) by considering:
 - Economy: minimising the cost of resources used or required – spending less;
 - Efficiency: the relationship between the output from goods or support and the resources to produce them – spending well;
 - Effectiveness: the relationship between the intended and actual results of spending – spending wisely;
 - Equity: the extent to which support is available to and reaches students as intended – spending fairly. Some students may receive differing levels of support for reasons other than differences in their levels of need.
 - Ensuring that the working environment is safe, suitable, attractive and well cared for.

Responsibilities are likely to change over time and you will be expected to perform duties of a similar nature such as the headteacher may reasonably require.
