Science

The Science Team at NTC offers staff an exciting opportunity to develop their scientific pedagogy within an experienced and supporting team. Science at NTC aims to give all students a real-life application of science experience, developing their understanding of the world around them to be able to make informed decisions and understand scientific issues in the world today.

Our subject ethos is to develop a love and curiosity of science. Our team has an extremely well-resourced lab, with a dedicated Science Technician and fully stocked preparation room. As a core subject within the school, we have a lead role in the progress of students, as well as working with other subjects to provide students with the opportunities to explore STEM activities.

At Key Stage 3, we offer a unique scheme of work, tailored to the needs of our students and designed to foster creativity. Each term is based around a big question and explores the elements of Biology, Chemistry and Physics that would be involved in the topic.

At Key Stage 4, we follow the AQA Combined Science trilogy specification, with students alternating each term between Biology, Physics and Chemistry. Students are entered into either Foundation or Higher Tier science, based on their ability and their attitude to learning. Since the introduction of the Combined Science curriculum, our number of students sitting Higher Tier Science has increased each year, with students developing key skills that have supported them in their future destinations. Our recent results showed that our Higher Tier students achieved above National average in all six Science papers.

At Key Stage 5, we offer the BTEC Level 3 Foundation Diploma in Applied Science, with a focus in Year 13 on mainly the Biology Units within the course. Students complete this course with some of the highest results within our Sixth Form and have gone on to pursue careers in many fields, including physiotherapy, teaching, nursing, sports coaching.

This is an excellent opportunity for an individual who is as passionate about Science as much as we are, to join a supportive, friendly and committed science team, who are dedicated to achieving the highest possible standards
