

OUR VALUES

We have twenty-four core school values that guide children's choices, behaviour and learning. These values are the basis of all our values teaching and will help children understand connected values. These values have been chosen by carefully observing and discussing which of our previous values have worked well and which ones would help to develop our children the most morally and educationally.

