

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Midday Supervisor

The Folkestone School for Girls is a busy, vibrant and happy school to work in. Colleagues are valued for their personal contribution to the school and our team are friendly and approachable with a good sense of humour. You will need reserves of resilience and enthusiasm and a capacity for sustained hard work. Perhaps most importantly, you will be positive, optimistic and have a can-do attitude to anything that will benefit FSG!

Key skills and competences will include:

- The ability to work as part of a team or under own initiative
- Good time keeping skills
- Excellent verbal communication skills to be able to give instructions and manage situations involving groups of people
- The ability to be attentive and vigilant, and remain calm under pressure; the ability to take decisive action and problem solve to be able to deal with unforeseen problems.
- To be able to move around a demanding site in terms of area and changes in level within buildings
- Be prepared to attend any necessary courses and undertake relevant training
- Be committed to the safeguarding and promoting the well-being of children and young people.
- Reliable and trustworthy

Additional Information

Midday Supervisors work under the direction of the Line Manager. Appropriate training and guidance will be provided.