The Post

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding Law teacher, to lead our A level Law offer. Our Law department thrives on the notions of inclusion, creativity and enthusiasm for the subject and has gone from strength to strength in the past 2 years. Law is offered as part of our WG6 offer and we have 2 classes in each year group. The department works closely with the other Humanities subjects, as such the ability to teach within another subject would be advantageous particularly in one of the Humanities subject areas such as Religious Studies, Sociology, Psychology or Business studies.

The ideal candidate will be passionate about the Law curriculum and how this can be taught in an inspiring way to maximise exam success, whilst developing a love for the subject. We are looking for someone who can spark students' passion for the subject, and to help students to lead successful future lives. The ability to extend students' engagement beyond the school day, through extra-curricular would be an advantage.

The department attained strong results last summer and is set to build on this in the coming year.

Our ideal candidate will display:

- A passion for teaching Law with evidence of enabling students to surpass expectations.
- Experience in teaching A level with a good curriculum knowledge and understanding of the examination requirements.
- Experience of using data to push students to (and beyond) their targets.

Wilmington Grammar School for Girls is an Outstanding school with a strong track record of achievement. We are part of the Endeavour MAT family of schools, and we pride ourselves on setting consistently high expectations, securing outstanding outcomes and delivering exceptional standards of teaching and learning for all.
