English

At Northfleet Technology College, students are very proud of their progress in English and understand that excellent literacy skills are essential for being successful communicators for life. Our excellent GCSE results reflect the success of our hard-working students and how well we all work together as a team to support them to become the best version of themselves.

The English and Drama team's curriculum embraces NTC's '3 C's' – Creative, Curious and Caring, and we model this to our students throughout our curriculum. Students follow a spiralised curriculum where KS3 mirrors the demands of KS4 – this means that by the time they started their GCSEs in Year 10 they are 'GCSE ready' and are able to cope with the rigours the AQA syllabus demands.

We work hard to cultivate a deep love of reading, with very successful, bespoke reading interventions swiftly put in place by the start of Year 7, which supports them to read deeply and widely. This supports the latest work the school is embracing from the 'Voice 21' programme, which places oracy at the heart of our learning. Oracy is a vital area of whole school development, and we would welcome applications from those who are able to help us implementing new strategies into our already diverse and challenging curriculum.

We are very excited to be launching our new library in September 2023 – this is certainly something we would like you to get involved in! We are looking forward to using this brand-new resource to support our students' reading, but also to involve our parents more in the culture of our school. We run monthly writing competitions and our students are often very successful at being published and using this new area will only serve to create more opportunities for this to take place.

We are a very friendly team with a wide range of diverse backgrounds and cultures, which makes us a perfect mix! We are dedicated and passionate and we understand that our students come first. We support each other closely through our joint planning and delivery of lessons – teamwork is completely essential for the team to be successful.

If you are interested in joining our friendly, hardworking and very supportive team, where you will have every opportunity to grow your experience and leadership, please do not hesitate to make contact.

We are really looking forward to meeting you!
