Letter from the Headteacher

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in this exciting role within our secondary school, which forms part of the Southeast Kent Cluster of Kent Catholic Schools' Partnership.

We have a long tradition of providing Catholic education to those in the local community and educating each student who passes through our doors to achieve their personal best. Student well-being and learning are at the heart of everything we do.

We have extremely high expectations of what we do for the students in our schools and are keen to recruit like-minded, passionate colleagues who have the potential to redefine what is possible in the education landscape.

If you are passionate about making a better world through the power of education and have the skills to help us showcase the work we do, we would love to hear from you.

Kind regards

Danielle Lancefield

Job Description

Teacher of History

GENERAL DUTIES

To maintain and build upon the standards achieved in the award for QTS (Secondary) as set out by the Secretary of State:

1. To support and promote the Catholic ethos of the College in undertaking all your duties.
2. To insist on the highest standard of behaviour from all students.
3. To manage pupil learning through effective teaching in accordance with the department's schemes of work and policies.
4. To ensure continuity, progression and cohesiveness in all teaching.
5. To use a variety of approaches (including differentiation) to match curricular objectives and the range of pupil needs, and ensure equality of opportunity for all pupils.
6. To set quality homework regularly, (in accordance with the School Homework Policy), to consolidate and extend learning and to encourage pupils to take responsibility for their own learning.
7. To work with SEN staff and support staff (including prior discussion and joint planning when possible) in order to benefit from their specialist knowledge and to maximise their effectiveness within lessons.
8. To work effectively as a member of the department team to improve the quality of teaching and learning.
9. To set high expectations for all pupils, to deepen their knowledge and understanding and to maximise their achievement.
10. To use positive management of behaviour in an environment of mutual respect which allows pupils to feel safe and secure and promotes their self esteem.

MONITORING, ASSESSMENT, RECORDING AND ACCOUNTABILITY

1. To be immediately responsible for the processes of identification, assessment, recording and reporting for the pupils in their charge.
2. To contribute towards the implementation of the PEPs as detailed in the current code of practice particularly the planning and recording of appropriate actions and outcomes related to set targets.
3. To assess pupils' work systematically and use the results to inform future planning, teaching and curricular development.
4. To be familiar with statutory assessment and reporting procedures and to prepare and present informative, helpful and accurate reports to parents.
5. Keep an accurate register of pupils for each lesson.
6. Unexplained absences or patterns should be reported immediately in accordance with the school registration policy.
7. To enter all requested pupil data with regard to assessments, exams, residuals etc. on to the school computer system. Personal copies may be obtained from the office. Teachers may generate their own copies.

SUBJECT KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING
