Message from Louise Campbell, Headteacher

I am delighted to welcome you to our wonderful partnership of schools representing a monumental development in the educational landscape of our vibrant community, the union of Walderslade Girls' School and Greenacre Academy. With great pride and excitement, I present to you our combined organisation: The Walderslade & Greenacre Schools Partnership (WGSP), poised to set new standards of excellence in education while cherishing the values and traditions that define both our schools. Our culture and ethos, Aspirational, Respectful and Resilient, is reflected throughout the organisation.

Are you passionate about making a meaningful difference in the lives of young people? At WGSP, we are dedicated to driving up standards and transforming educational outcomes for over 1,800 students aged 11-18. The vision shared by myself and our staff at WGSP, is to ensure that every student completes their seven-year journey with us, having received the best quality education, fully prepared for success in their next steps, whether that be further education, an apprenticeship, or employment.

My journey in education began in 2004, when I first stepped into the classroom as a teacher, driven by a passion for shaping young minds and fostering a love for learning. Over the years, I have had the privilege of working in a variety of educational establishments across Medway and Essex, each experience enriching my understanding of the diverse needs of students and the complexities of school leadership.

Commencing as a teacher, I soon took on the extra role of Head of Year, where I gained valuable insights into pastoral care and student development. This experience paved the way for my appointment as Head of Department, where I focused on curriculum development and driving academic standards. My journey continued as I progressed to Assistant Headteacher, where I had the opportunity to influence whole-school strategies, and later to Deputy Headteacher, where I played a key role in school leadership and management.

In 2022, I was honoured to be appointed as the Headteacher of Walderslade, where I embarked on a mission to elevate the school's performance and reputation. Today, as the Headteacher driving change at The Walderslade & Greenacre Schools Partnership, I remain committed to the core values that have guided my career: hard work, determination, a passion for excellence, and a rigorous drive to excel in everything we do.

I am looking for employees who share this passion for change and who are eager to drive our partnership's values of aspiration, respect, and resilience. Together, we can create an environment where every student receives the highest quality education and is fully prepared for success in their future endeavours. I hope you find this candidate pack informative. If you would like to arrange a visit to see the school in action or have any further enquiries, please don't hesitate to contact us here at the partnership, using the contact details in this pack.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Louise Campbell
Headteacher
