Welcome from the Head of School

Gary Cook
BA (Hons)

At New Line Learning Academy, we are proud to be at the heart of our community. The strong sense of belonging within our school reflects this belief and strengthens our collective spirit.

We foster a supportive and inclusive environment where every student is encouraged to Believe and Achieve. The wellbeing of our students is at the centre of everything we do, and we are committed to ensuring that every individual feels valued, respected, and empowered.

Our mission is to inspire academic excellence, nurture ambition, and provide exceptional experiences that help every student reach their full potential.

Our modern facilities—including dedicated spaces for drama, music, dance, sport, science, and ICT—enable us to offer a rich, personalised, and engaging learning experience.

At New Line Learning Academy, our values are brought to life every day. Our students are Ready to learn, Respectful of others, and thrive in a Safe and purposeful environment. These core principles underpin all that we do and help shape well-rounded, confident individuals.

We are also proud to be part of Future Schools Trust, a forward-thinking and supportive family of schools committed to collaboration, innovation, and professional growth. Staff at New Line Learning Academy benefit from high-quality professional development, opportunities to work across schools within the trust, and a culture that values wellbeing, teamwork, and continuous improvement. Whether you're starting your career or looking to take the next step, you'll find a welcoming and ambitious environment where your contribution is genuinely valued.

It is a privilege and an honour to lead such an exceptional school. I look forward to continuing our journey together and working closely with our community to help every student thrive and succeed.

Post:	Head of Physical Education
School:	New Line Learning Academy
Department:	Physical Education
Responsible to:	Headteacher
Salary:	MPS/UPS plus TLR

Purpose and Accountability

In addition to the contractual duties of a schoolteacher set out in the latest Schoolteachers Pay and Conditions Document that the Headteacher may reasonably direct from time to time, the main responsibilities of the post are outlined below.

- To provide professional leadership and management for Physical Education and secure high-quality teaching, effective use of resources and improved standards of learning and achievement for all students
- To provide direction and to lead, support, motivate and develop the team of staff within the Academy
- To lead the development of the Physical Education department in accordance with the Academy Development Plan/Ofsted Action Plan and the overall aims and objectives of the Academy.

Job Description

In addition to your duties as a school teacher, you will be expected to:

Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of:

- School improvement and effectiveness strategies including the process of school self evaluation
- Processes and systems for quality assurance within Physical Education
- Principles and practices in relation to managing learning and teaching, people, policy and planning, resources, and finance
- Principles and practices of effective leadership and management of change
- The application of information and communications technology (ICT) to learning, teaching and management of Physical Education
- Principles of curriculum planning
- Financial planning and resource planning.

2.2 Impact on educational progress beyond your own pupils:

- Develop and implement policies and practices for Physical Education, which reflects the school's commitment to high achievement, consistent with national and academy policies
- Establish short, medium and long term plans for the development and resourcing of the subject; this includes the appointment of staff and the determination of spending patterns/resource acquisitions
- Consult with line managers regarding staff deployment, the use of departmental rooms, the allocation of staff to classes and students to groups
- Monitor the progress made in achieving subject plans and targets and evaluate the impact on teaching and learning
- Take a lead role in developing links within the school and outside the school to enhance school improvement and pupil attainment in Physical Education.

2.3 Influence the teaching practice of others positively:

- Provide consistent professional support, guidance and encouragement and act as a role model for colleagues within the school.
- Assist and develop teachers within the department to enhance performance (e.g. induction, coaching, mentoring and monitoring) and share good practice (e.g. ECTs, GTPs and UQTs); encouraging staff to keep abreast of recent curricular and pedagogical developments.
- Be involved in staff development and inset on both a personal and departmental level by supporting and encouraging attendance at relevant courses/conferences and visits; showing an interest in departmental career aspirations.
- Be accountable for the Performance Management Review for designated Teachers and/or Support Staff.
- Apply observation techniques for the measurement and analysis of the quality of learning taking place within the Physical Education Department
- Plan, delegate and evaluate work carried out by individual members of staff within the Physical Education team.
- Create, maintain and enhance effective relationships between staff, and between staff and pupils.

2.4 Be accountable for curriculum and student development:

- Lead the Physical Education department on new teaching, learning and curriculum initiatives, modelling best practice
- Provide guidance on a choice of appropriate teaching/learning methods
- Develop and implement systems for recording individual pupil's progress; including formative and summative assessments; and follow the school reporting and assessment procedures
- Establish, supervise, and monitor the internal and external examinations policy of the Physical Education Department
- Ensure schemes of work are developed appropriately
- Maintain standards of academic excellence by evaluating the quality of teaching and standards of achievement, setting targets for improvement
- Ensure that the quality of students' work is frequently assessed; organise the setting and marking of tests and monitor standards across the Physical Education department
- Accept responsibility for the conduct and behaviour of students within the Physical Education department and assist staff as problems arise
- Liaise with parents about the work, effort and progress of students and deal in the first instance with parental complaints
- Set work for absent staff where this is required
- Ensure that expenditure is kept within prescribed limits and a regular check is maintained on stock.
- Attend and contribute to middle management and other meetings sharing information as required
- Lead departmental meetings and meet with your line manager regularly, keeping them abreast of developments or concerns
- Represent the department at local or regional level as and when required.

Welcome from the Trust Lead

Samantha McMahon
BA (Hons) | NPQH

Welcome to Future Schools Trust: Relentless Ambition for Young People.

We aim to achieve our vision by bringing together our family of schools to create a cohesive and aspirational community which enables every child and member of staff to exceed their expectations.

Our values are:

- Integrity
- Respect
- Resilience
- Strong Work Ethic
- Collaboration
- Equality

The best interests of young people guide every ambition and decision we take. We are passionate in our belief that schools are stronger when they work together whilst being proud and protective of the unique identity of each of our schools in the Trust. Maintaining a strong moral purpose and supportive but challenging culture is central to everything we aim to achieve.

I hope this introductory letter provides a sense of our culture and ethos and our direction of travel. If you decide to apply, we appreciate how long it takes to apply for jobs, but please do not send a general application; we are looking for someone prepared to respond to us, respecting where we are at on our journey as a Trust. You can be sure that we will take time and care in reading your personal application.

Electronic application forms should be completed on the Every Portal which you can access at <https://www.futureschoolstrust.com/vacancies/>.

Best wishes

Samantha McMahon
