Dover Grammar School for Girls is proud of its welcoming, inclusive and caring community; relationships between students and staff are very strong and support this. We are an innovative school, where staff's workload and wellbeing are central to everything we plan, ask and do – we are a school that puts our staff first. The ethos and culture of the school was captured perfectly during our most recent inspection (March 2025):

"There is a caring and supportive ethos throughout the school."

"This school is well led."

"Leaders are aware of, and sensitive to, staff's workload and well-being"

"Staff appreciate the professional development they receive and know their work is valued."

"[staff] feel well supported and are happy and proud to work at this school."
