THE LENHAM SCHOOL

JOB DESCRIPTION
Job Title	Teacher of History
Grade	MPS/UPR
School / Department	The Lenham School
Base	The Lenham School
Hours	Full time 32.5 hours per week
Reports to	Head of Department
Accountable to	Deputy Headteacher

Job Summary

The role of Teacher of History is for a committed and motivated professional who would like to work in a school that provides a wealth of opportunities for both its pupils and staff, along with wanting to be part of a family-friendly, team-based workforce.

This post would be suitable for either an experienced teacher or a newly qualified teacher. We are looking for talented teachers.

We would like an enthusiastic, dedicated and ambitious team player to join us, who has a passion for teaching History.

Key Working Relationships

- Collaborate with the History department and other staff where appropriate.

Key Responsibilities

- Communicate with parents, carers and other stakeholders about pupil progress in History.
- To plan and deliver lessons to Key Stages 3 and 4 where appropriate.
- To fulfil the Government Teachers' Standards.
- To work with the Lead Teacher to ensure students are taught to the highest standard.
- To undertake the duties of personal development lead as directed by the Head of House and appropriate managers.
- To be aware of the current research on teacher effectiveness and professional qualities.
- To be responsible for personal professional development according to School Policy.
- The job description will be reviewed at the end of the academic year or earlier if necessary. In addition, it may be amended at any time after consultation with you.

Support for the school

Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health and safety, security and confidentiality, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.

- To contribute to overall ethos, work and mission statement of the school.
- To undertake broadly similar duties commensurate with the level of the post as required by the Headteacher.
- Participate in the school's appraisal process.

In addition to candidates' ability to perform the duties of the post, the interview will also explore issues relating to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children including:

- motivation to work with children and young people
- ability to form and maintain appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people
- emotional resilience in working with challenging behaviours
- attitudes to use of authority and maintaining discipline

Safeguarding

As a VIAT employee you will commit to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people.

Equality and diversity

The Trust expects every employee to take responsibility for promoting a culture that values and respects difference.

Statement

The list of duties in this job description should not be regarded as exclusive or exhaustive. There will be other duties and requirements associated with your job, and, in addition, as a term of your employment you may be required to undertake various other duties as may reasonably be required.
