St George's Church of England Foundation School is a distinctive all-through school in Broadstairs, Kent, educating children and young people from the age of 4 through to 19.

Primary School – 420 pupils

Secondary School – 1196 pupils

With a strong Christian foundation and a proud history within the local community, the school offers continuity, stability and a coherent educational journey from early years to sixth form.

Vision and Values

At the heart of St George's is a clear and compelling vision:

"Every moment, every day, every individual counts."

This vision reflects the school's commitment to knowing every pupil as an individual and supporting them to flourish academically, socially and spiritually.

The school's ethos is rooted in its Christian foundation and is shaped by five core values:

- Compassion
- Friendship
- Hope
- Forgiveness
- Wisdom

These values guide decision-making, relationships and daily life across the school community, creating an inclusive environment where pupils of all backgrounds and beliefs are welcomed, respected and encouraged to succeed.

School History and Ethos

St George's has a long-established reputation as a caring, values-driven Church of England school serving its local and wider community. Its all-through structure is a defining feature, enabling staff to support pupils' development over many years and ensuring strong transitions between key stages.

The school places equal importance on academic ambition and personal development, recognising that education is about more than examination outcomes. Strong pastoral care, high expectations and a shared moral purpose underpin the school's approach to teaching and learning.

Curriculum and Personal Development

St George's offers a rich and ambitious curriculum designed to develop confident, resilient and aspirational learners. Academic learning is complemented by strong pastoral support, enabling pupils to grow in character, confidence and independence.

The school's all-through model allows for a coherent curriculum journey from early years to post-16 education, supporting continuity in learning, relationships and values. Staff work collaboratively to ensure that pupils are well prepared for the next stage of education, employment or training.

Facilities and Learning Environment

The school benefits from facilities appropriate to an all-through setting, supporting pupils across a wide age range. Learning spaces are designed to promote engagement, independence and collaboration, while the wider school environment reflects the school's emphasis on care, inclusion and community.

The sense of belonging and shared identity across the school is a key strength, enabling pupils to feel safe, supported and confident throughout their educational journey.

Use of Technology and Innovation

St George's recognises the importance of preparing young people for life in a rapidly changing world.

Technology is used purposefully to enhance teaching and learning, support staff collaboration and develop pupils' digital skills.

Innovation is guided by the school's values and educational vision, ensuring that technology supports high-quality learning, strong pastoral care and inclusive practice.

Community and Partnerships

St George's is built on strong relationships between pupils, staff, governors, families and the wider community. The school values teamwork, humility and shared responsibility, recognising that everyone has an important role to play in helping the school community thrive.

As reflected in its Christian foundation, the school places great importance on service, mutual respect and working together for the benefit of every child and young person.

In Summary

St George's Church of England Foundation School offers:

- A clear, values-led vision rooted in Christian faith
- An all-through educational journey from age 4 to 19
- Strong pastoral care alongside academic ambition
- A welcoming, inclusive and community-focused ethos
