Danecourt is a special school catering for primary aged children who have special educational needs. The school caters for children with a wide breadth of need including complex learning difficulties, autism and social emotional mental health needs.

At Danecourt, our mission is to provide all pupils with a “stimulating learning environment where every individual is valued, respected, safe and successful”. All pupils receive a personalised curriculum tailored to meet their specific needs.

Are you a passionate primary or SEN teaching assistant with the ability to make an immediate contribution to the way that pupils learn and engage?

We are looking for casual teaching assistants with drive, enthusiasm and potential to join our friendly, professional, positive and forward looking school.

To be successful in this role you will:

- Have a recognised Teaching Assistant or Childcare qualification to Level 3 or equivalent (such as A levels) (Desirable)
- Have experience of or an interest in working with pupils with complex learning needs including children with Autism or SEMH needs.
- Possess excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to empathise with children and parents from a variety of social backgrounds.
- Be able to demonstrate resilience and a good sense of humour
- have a strong commitment to inclusive principles and be committed to safeguarding children and young people.
