Danecourt is a special school catering for primary aged children who have special educational needs. The school caters for children with a wide breadth of need including complex learning difficulties, autism and social emotional mental health needs.

At Danecourt, our mission is to provide all pupils with a “stimulating learning environment where every individual is valued, respected, safe and successful”. All pupils receive a personalised curriculum tailored to meet their specific needs.

Are you a passionate primary or SEN teacher with an interest or experience of teaching pupils with SEMH needs with the ability to make an immediate contribution to the way that pupils learn and engage?

For the right candidate there is also the opportunity to take responsibility for Maths lead across the school.

If this sounds like you then look no further! We are seeking to appoint an experienced teacher with drive and enthusiasm to join our team of dynamic and professional practitioners who strive for greatness and enhance performance.

As a Teacher, you will:

- Act as a role model and inspire pupils and colleagues alike in continuing to strive for outstanding teaching and learning.
- Share the school’s commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people.
- Effectively plan lessons and sequences of lessons to meet pupils’ individual learning needs, assessing children’s strengths and determine their next steps in learning

To be successful in this role you will:

- Be a suitably qualified teacher with experience of leading a subject area and have engaged in recent professional development
- Have excellent teaching skills and the ability to differentiate curriculum provision
- Have knowledge and experience of teaching pupils with differentiating curriculum provision to meet individual needs.
- Possess excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to empathise with children and parents from a variety of social backgrounds.
- An interest in or experience of working with pupils with SEMH needs.
