Our Head Girl and Head Boy said:

“We are looking for a patient leader who will create the best learning experience possible. They will help us and teach fun lessons. It is important that they are a good role model who will inspire the future children. They must make sure that children’s voices are heard. They need to be kind-hearted, funny and entertaining whilst doing a serious job. They need to laugh and not be boring because this makes us want to come back! They need to laugh at their own mistakes. They should be leaders and follow our school values. Please see our personalised message to you on our school website.”

“Don’t wait – the time will be never be just right!” – LM & NM: Year 5
