Bligh Primary School are seeking to appoint an Assistant Headteacher who will join us to build upon our successes and help to shape the future of our Trust.

Bligh is a very unique Primary School in the fact that it is two separate schools with a nursery and Children's Centre on site. Bligh Primary Infant School is an outstanding school (July 2015) and Bligh Primary Junior School is a good school (Feb 2013). Both schools and the school nursery are member of Barnsole Primary Trust.

At Bligh, we respect, value and invest in our staff to ensure that they have every opportunity to become outstanding leaders of learning.

You will work alongside one other Assistant Headteacher, a Deputy Headteacher, the Head of School and our dedicated Senior Leadership Team to support us in achieving the very best for the pupils at Bligh.

Are you…?

- passionate about education and leadership?
- a leader who has the highest expectations of themselves and others?
- a dynamic primary practitioner who understands outstanding teaching and learning across the Early Years and Years 1 to 6?
- a dedicated team player with energy, drive and creativity?
- innovative and committed to school improvement?
- committed to the highest possible expectations and pupil outcomes?

- a strong communicator with emotional intelligence?
- ambitious and committed to your own professional development?
- a leader with a sense of humour?

We can offer you…

- pupils who are enthusiastic, fun and caring.
- a dynamic and supportive Senior Leadership Team.
- opportunities for career development.
- a 100% focus on improving outcomes for all our pupils.
- a vibrant, energetic and fun place to work.
