- Share responsibility for planning and decision making in all aspects of school life.
- Promote good relationships between all staff (both teaching and non-teaching) and with parents, governors and the wider community.
- Support the vision, aims, ethos and policies of the school and promote high levels of achievement.
- Foster a climate within the school which promotes the spiritual, moral and cultural development of the pupils.
- Support the design, implementation and monitoring of the school within the national and local context, taking sole responsibility for appropriately delegated aspects of it.
- Support the evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's policies and developments.
- Ensure that parents and carers are well informed about the school curriculum, its targets, children's attainment and their part in the process of improvement.

Learning and Teaching - General:

- Develop classroom environments and teaching practice which secures effective learning across the breadth of the school curriculum.
- Provide a professional model, clearly demonstrating effective teaching, classroom organisation and display, and high standards of achievement, behaviour and discipline.
- Take responsibility for the development and monitoring of curriculum areas and aspects of the whole school curriculum as required.

The Curriculum

- To contribute to the whole school delivery of the curriculum.
- To ensure that year group information stored on the network system is kept up to date.
- To work closely with staff to ensure that the curriculum meets the needs of all children.

Promoting Effective Teaching and Raising Standards

- To ensure that almost all pupils make rapid and sustained progress within the year group.
- To ensure effective planning across the year group.
- To analyse class data in order to inform planning and identify pupils for group or individual targeted teaching.
- To be fully acquainted with school data systems.

Personnel

- To support personal professional development by:
 - working alongside colleagues in their classrooms to observe styles of teaching and share good practice
 - being fully acquainted with school policies
 - attending weekly continual professional development meetings
 - identifying areas of practice that would benefit from further profession development
- Be familiar with the assessment arrangements within the year group.

Behaviour Management

- To meet with parents to discuss and advise them on issues related to their child's behaviour.
- To bring to the Assistant Head Teacher's attention issues and concerns related to specific children with behavioural problems.
- To monitor children with challenging behaviour in line with the School's Code of Practice.

Administration

- Ensure data and information deadlines are met

Other duties:

- Any other responsibilities deemed necessary to meet the progress and achievement needs of the pupils in the school.
